FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

USFMEP Supports the People of Egypt

New York, March 18th, 2011 - United Federation for Middle East Peace (“USFMEP”) affirms its deep admiration and support for the people of Egypt as they work to build a new democratic government following the resignation of former President Hosni Mubarak.

USFMEP President Sally Kader declared, “the persistence and determination that the Egyptian people have shown in fighting for their freedom is inspiring. We are immensely proud of them and all that they have accomplished.”

President Kader also commended Egyptians on their commitment to a peaceful transition to democracy. “Egypt is so very dear to me,” President Kader emphasized. “I praise them for the courage that they have shown in the face of violent government opposition. Even when confronted with hostility and intimidation, the people of Egypt conducted themselves in a peaceful manner.”

Recognizing the obstacles that Egypt is now facing, President Kader affirmed her support for Egypt as it works toward build a functioning democratic government. Egypt now faces the challenge of integrating diverse and polarized philosophies into the new administration as they discuss the scheduling and structure of the upcoming elections.

“The Egyptian people are embarking on a challenging journey,” President Kader said. “We fervently hope that they will succeed in their quest for democracy and find leaders worthy to head their new government.”
